ADAMS COUNTY OVLSD SCHOOL RESOURCE OFFICERS

Adams County OVLSD Superintendent Rodney Wallace and Treasurer Tina Hageman and Cheryl Copas of the Sheriff's office met with the board to discuss the possibility of obtaining two additional school resource officers for security to address security and drug issues on school campuses. The school currently has one, but would like two more to cover the district. The school needs to know salary and benefits and would like to do a contract with the Sheriff's office; the contract would include health insurance and would be based on a thirty-six week period. Sheriff Rogers would cover the summer months and has funding set aside to pay the officers. The board members informed Mr. Wallace and Ms. Hageman that they are committed to working with Sheriff Rogers to provide the additional officers for the school district.

Assistant Prosecutor Dana Whalen met with the board to discuss personnel, contract agreements, and certification of delinquent sewer payments to the Adams County Auditor.
